

Jahzara Joy Joiner

May 8, 2002 - August 9, 2024

On May 8, 2022, Jahzara Joy Joiner, our bright and blessed princess, was born to parents Jessica Kirkwood Joiner and Robert Joiner, Jr. in Decatur, Georgia. Known for her vibrant spirit and loving nature, Jahzara's short time on Earth was filled with boundless love, laughter, and the purest joy that touched the lives of everyone who knew her. Her infectious giggle and tender voice could light up even the darkest of days.

She is survived by her loving parents, Jessica and Robert Joiner, her protective siblings, with whom she shared a deeply affectionate bond, and her adoring grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

We encourage all who were blessed to know Jahzara Joy to remember her as a pillar of strength and tenacity. Her time with us was brief, but she has taught us the depth of unconditional love and the importance of cherishing every moment.

“May she fly with heavenly wings on clouds so soft and white. May her heart be full of joy and bathe in God’s glorious light. You’re one of Heaven’s angels now, a perfect little star, and when you shine, the world can see just how beautiful you are.” - Heaven’s Little Angel, Author Unknown
