“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Jake Smith. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ Although I don't know your family personally I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. Loosing someone we love is one of the hardest things we will deal with in life. However, many have found comfort by looking into Gods word the Bible. The Bible assures us of a time in the near future when Gods Kingdom mentioned at Matthew 6:10 will rule over mankind. (Daniel 2:44) Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no more death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) May our Heavenly Father Jehovah,(Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort needed at this difficult time. Meditate on Gods word the Bible ,and draw close to our Heavenly Father. (James 4:8) May you be comforted by family and friends,and your loving memories until these promises are fulfilled.

“ *To the Family and Friends of Mr. Jake Smith: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God made a provision to resurrect dead ones by sending his only-begotten Son to the earth to give his life on our behalf. (1 John 4:9, John 3:16). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life.
The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). So continue to put full faith in God's promises...He is faithful and always keeps his word! (Isaiah 55:10,11).*
