“ My sincere condolences to all the family. It is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. True comfort can only be found by knowing the true Creator. Knowing that He hates death: he even views it as an enemy.(1 Corinthian 15:26) He has a yearning to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again-Job 14:14,15. And for the mean time He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds.(Psalms 147:3). So trust that He can comfort you.

“ During the 2011-2012 school year, I was blessed with an opportunity to teach a smart, loving, and very social young man in my third grade class; and, that young man was you. You were a leader, a friend to many, and the occasional class clown. Your smile was bright, you enjoyed learning new things, and I always loved watching how you thought outside of the box when completing projects, answering questions, and even your verbal responses during class discussions. On the last day of school that year, I remember us sitting on the carpet saying our goodbye's and I looked over and you were crying. When I asked you what was wrong, you simply replied, This was the best year ever and I'm gonna' miss you Ms. Jones! You then gave me the biggest hug, which turned into a big class hug! On my last day at Stone Mill this past April, you came to my classroom, gave me another huge hug, smiled and said, I'm gonna' miss you Mrs. Porter! I love you! I told you I loved you too and not to run back to your classroom. Those moments, along with several others, are the memories I'll hold dear to my heart. May you rest in peace sweet angel. Love, Mrs. Ebony Porter

“ Mommy is still in disbelief that your not here with me physically. Its really killing me inside the thought of you not being here. To hold your lil sister or for our new beginnings on moving into a new place, school starting the holidays and new year off right. Me not holding you anymore or having you wake me up out my sleep with wet kisses no more. Talks about girls ,us cracking our corny jokes and acting crazy in the house. You cooking fried chicken which you love. I'm going to miss catching you sneaking samples of my fried chicken and making smoothies. You still wanting to sleep in my bed cause it was just us for so long. We did everything together I remember us having so much fun traveling. The trip to myrtle beach was one of our best moments you dancing with that grown woman who had a big butt and you were only 4yrs old. Also the school trip to the aquarium I'm mad I lost all those pics of that trip. I'm trying to be strong papa but this is too much for my heart. All I do is cry when I look at your pics cause your supposed to be here. Its too quite without you why did you leave us papa. I know your in a better place with God but it feels like my soul has be taken from me your my son, best friend , I love you & miss you Jalen aka J-mac aka Teddy bear aka Mohawk

“ To the Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. “ Aisha, when I was told about Jalen's passing, I could not believe what I was hearing. Whenever I would see you guys at whatever occasion was happening at the time, Jalen was ways smiling, always happy!! I saw your post asking not to mourn Jalen but celebrate him, I said she lost her baby boy and she is worried about us. You are a beautiful person and I know Jalen is with Father just smiling at you and the family!! Love you Aisha!! RIP JALEN!!!

“ I send my deepest condolences. I can only imagine the pain you are going thru. It is very sad to see these situations but what has always helped me is finding comfort in God's word the Bible. I know right now it is difficult to view the future with hope but in Revelations 21:4 it explains how we can have hope for a better future that God promises us, where death will no longer exist. I hope these thoughts have helped and remember that God is always there for us when we need him.

“ I remember Jalen as being the most curious and eager to please young man when he was in nursery school. I always think of his big smile whenever he crossed my mind. He was a very loving child and will remain in a special place in my heart! The tears I shed are for missing seeing him grow. I know without a doubt in the world that heaven welcomed him with out -stretched arms.
