“ *To the family of Master Jamaal Sabir Jenkins: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My deepest sympathy to the Jenkins family during your time of loss. Always remember that God can strengthen and help you endure the days that lie ahead (Isa. 41:10) as we look eagerly to the fulfillment of his promise at Isa. 25:8.

“ When I first met you I wished my son was back your size those moments are the most precious. I only held you once but wish I got to spend more time with you. Wish you and ayden could have grown up together. Look after your mommy and your big brother. You will truly be missed such a handsome little boy gone go be with the lord.

“ God has shown us yet another glimpse if heaven....I didn't get to meet Jamaal. I didn't get to hold him or even see his picture until last week. But the radiance of love that beamed from my friend, his mother (Joi's) face, let me know that she had yet another angel come into her world. So it is knowing that, that I offer warm condolences to let you know that this bright and handsome angel has returned home to heaven. That one day God will reunite us all and the same joy we have all experienced in some way (being that we are all connected through Jamaal now), will be so GREAT! We will rejoice that day and the sun will never set on our smiles and tears of happiness. To the family: We all love you and are praying for your peace and strength in Christ. Blessings~Curtis

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family. May God's loving resurrection provision (Isaiah 26:19) comfort you all as you look ahead to the time when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Continue to draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you. ~James 4:8.
