“ RIP Jamal Dixon

I will never forget when I was frustrated with putting this drumset together and you said you were on the way to help and didn't let me help you put it together.

I will never forget when I fell and the kids thought I dislocated my shoulder and called you and y'all laughed at me.

I will never forget our Mexican food days after your Cancer scans.

I will never forget our hikes.

Thanks for introducing me to vegan food.

I truly do miss my doctor and my friend!
