

Jamarcus Bernard Jones

January 4, 1990 - March 12, 2022

Jamarcus Bernard Jones was born on January 4, 1990 in Atlanta Georgia to Annie Davis and Thomas Bernard Jones.

He confessed a belief in Christ at a early age and attended New Covenant Christian Ministries and Graduated from Martin Luther King Jr High School in Lithonia Georgia.

Jamarcus Bernard Jones transitioned into eternal rest on Saturday, March 12, 2022 at his home in Duluth, Georgia. He was surrounded by his family as he heard the voice of God, declaring Well Done, Thy Good and Faithful Servant. He fell asleep peacefully in the Master's arms.

Jamarcus Bernard Jones aka "Jmark" loved to play Basketball. His favorite team was the Los Angeles Lakers, and his favorite player was Kobe Bryant. He had a passion for playing video games he would play for hours and hours; that's what he enjoyed during his pass time. Jamarcus was a kind-hearted, humble, generous, hard-working, nurturing, loyal, and loving Father and great friend. He loved spending time with his loving family which was also his motivation.

Jamarcus Bernard Jones memories will forever live in the hearts of all his loving and devoted family and friends. On Saturday, March 12th when he answered the call from his Heavenly Father, he joined his Grandmother Mrs. Idella W. Davis, Great- Grandmother Jessie M. Robb, and Aunt Joyce Davis. They met at the gate of heaven where they rejoiced.

To cherish and celebrate his love and legacy, Mr. Jarmarcus Bernard Jones leaves his mother Annie Davis, Covington Georgia and father Thomas Bernard Jones, Albany Georgia, Fiancée; Shanice Choice, daughter Noelle Jones and son Nolan Jones, Duluth Georgia; three sisters: Mayia Davis, Covington Georgia, Brandee Jones, Orlando Florida, and Amirah Goins, Dawson Georgia, Grandparents; Clarence (Jesse) Jones, Dawson Georgia, Aunts; Willie B Davis, Joliet Illinois, Jessie M.
