“ Dear Miller Family, I am so sorry for your loss. It is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. But know that our Creator did not intend for us to deal with such illness and remember that He hates death: he even views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthian 15:26) He has a yearning to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again- Job 14:14,15. And for the mean time He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. (Psalms 147:3). So trust that He can comfort you.

“ A beautiful garden now stands alone, missing the one who nurtured it. But now she is gone. Her flowers still bloom and the sun still shines. But the rain is like tear drops for the ones left behind. The weeds lay waiting to take the gardens beauty away. But the beautiful memories of it's keeper are in our hearts to stay. She loved every flower even some that were weeds. So much love she would plant with each little seed. But just like her flowers she was part of God's plan, so when it was her time he reached down his hand. He Look through the garden searching for the best. That's when he found Jameelah, it was her time to rest. It was hard for those who loved her to just let her go. But God had a spot in his garden that needed a gentle soul. So when you start missing Jameelah remember if u just wait. When God has a spot in his garden she'll meet u at the gate. Jameelah was an awesome some soul. And we are going to miss her very much.

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Jamellah Miller: I offer heartfelt condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. May God's loving resurrection provision (Isaiah 26:19) comfort you all as you look ahead to the time when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Jesus himself confirmed his role in these wonderful promises when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25).
