I'm going to miss you Bro! When God delivered you , you was never the same. I wish I would of know Sabbath would be. The last time I would hear your voice wow tears, I would of loved to have told you. How you were an awesome Father, husband and example of how to love and respect your wife and children. And you were always a real man never afraid of commitment to your wife or God. We don't weep as do others without a hope, but we rejoice in your spiritual legacy you left behind. This is not just words but fact. None of us have an excuse he lived a righteous life before us, always was the same once God filled him with the Holy Ghost. Let's give each other flowers 🌺 while we can smell them
