“ Jim is the big brother that God knew I needed. He was always there for me and my family. If Jim had not been a part of my life, I suspect my life would have been tragically different. I thank God and his family for sharing Jim with me.

“ I will always love and keep my cousin Jim close to my heart ❤️ He took me under his wing my year of "living dangerously " 1974. It was my Junior year in college and the first time away from home. My parents allowed me to live and and work in Atlanta that summer. James kept me safe. He guide me, loved, and protected me. He helped make me the person that I am today. Rest in peace and love my cousin.
