“ You and your family have my deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible promises the resurrection hope for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (John 5:28, 29)

“ I met James 3 years ago through Facebook. We talked consistently online and by phone every week. Then my convocation was held in Atlanta and he came to Officials Day services. Boy we had a time in service. He asked me one day could he call me auntie, and I told him I would be proud if he did. The last time I spoke to him was on December 7th because I was to come into Atlanta. But he told me no because he was not feeling well. I wish I went anyway. But was so glad I did get to see him in June with some friends. I will miss him and love him truly. Rest your deserved rest nephew. Love you.

“ My name is Shaundra Battle. I met James, face to face, the day of my grandmother's (Thelma Battle) funeral. He was the first person to greet me at the family car. From that day, I told James he was my cousin. Every time I saw him directing a choir, he made it a point to tell me that he learned all he knew about directing from my grandmother. James was so kind and genuine. He loved God so fervently! Now, I believe he and my grandmother are doing a tag-team directing the Heavenly choir!

“ I offer condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Edwards. God's loving resurrection provision assures us: Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirms his role in this promise in his words recorded at John 11:25. He said: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Keep in mind... God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
