“ To, Moma Lucy, Alex, and Junior.
Words can not describe how I feel and how I've felt since the day I received the call. James and I had been friends for a very long time. I wish I could have said good bye to my friend and express my sympathy to the family in person. Moma Lucy Cake, I promise to stay in touch. Love you always,

“ To Geraldine, Alex, Dierre, Anquanita, and James Jr, may the memories of James give you strength in the days ahead. My sympathies and condolences go out to all of you.

I looked at James as a son but I relates to him more as a younger brother. I would often say to James ‘Man, you are so much like your dad (my oldest brother, Ellie).’

James loved his wife Geraldine and family. We often talked about his children and what they were doing.

I will truly miss James, my nephew/son/brother. I only wish that the road we traveled over the past several years had started earlier and lasted longer. I love you, man, and as you would always tell me, ‘I appreciate you.’
