October 8, 1942 - October 8, 2023

Celebration Of Life For:

James Lonnie Duval

Mr. James Lonnie Duval was born on October 08, 1942, James was a native of Tampa, Fla. He resided in Atlanta ,Ga. James was a graduate of Howard W Blake high school class of 1961. James also attended Albany State University. (Where he played football for the Golden Rams) James was a family oriented man. James Duval had a long career in helping those around him. First based off of stories I know a lot of us heard from him .The beginning was that of a teacher for an high school located in Washington Georgia , While there he also spent time as an head coach for the same school. Once he found his way to Atlanta he begin an 27 year long job at a facility for special needs patients know as Brook Run. While there we believe that he made a difference in the lives of the residents and Co workers. For 20 of those 27 years he simultaneously worked part time for Mother Hubbard Daycare. Monday through Friday he made sure that children made it home to there parents safely while smiling. Like what was written in the beginning his career was helping those around him, Even in his private life he made sure to show his heart by helping family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Alcia Walker(Brother)

“ Our love, prayers and sympathy to our family. We will always have memories of our cousin . He always showed love and concern for other (a kind soul) and his living was not in vain. You could see the love he had for his family and siblings. He was someone you enjoyed talking with he could make your day and certainly make you laugh and smile. His presence will be missed but know that those memories will always be there and his spirit with you. Stay prayerful, trust in the Lord and be there for each other. Matthew 5:4. Charlotte and Edward.
