

James T. Gandy

April 6, 1936 - September 25, 2013

The Life of James T. Gandy James was born April 6, 1936 in Atmore, Alabama, to the union of the late Greely and Maggie Gandy. He confessed to Christ at an early age in Atmore, Alabama. He later moved To Atlanta, Georgia and united with Beulah Missionary Baptist Church for over 40 years. He worked as a Fork lift operator for Yellow Freight System for over 30 years. He retired September 10, 1998. James loved his job. He had many jobs within his job. He sold coffee from his forklift during his work days. He also voluntarily collected funds for any coworker who was in need. James Invited co-workers and anyone else he came into contact with to his church. He never met a stranger. He would shake hands everywhere he went to include church, the grocery store, the mall and the football game. He just loved people. His favorite past time was watching wrestling and other sports. He often shared, "Give me my flowers while I'm living and not when I'm gone". Although he had a limited education he always promoted doing your best in school. He was proud of his children's accomplishments. He lived his life and handled his responsibilities with fear and reverence for God. His life testifies to the goodness and favor of God. He leaves To cherish his memories his wife Rosie and five children: Linda (Karl Williams), Lucynthia, Vivian, Gayla and James Jr (Arita), 9 Grandchildren, 5 Great Grandchildren, 3 sisters and 1 brother.

“ To the Gandy Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. For more scriptural encouragement please go to www.jw.org/brochures/What Hope for Dead Loved Ones. Warm Christian Love, Bonnie Perkins ; Rockbridge Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ The Terrell family offer a word of encouragement to the Gandy family and Sister Robbie(Gandy-Williams) know this he his with the father. John14: 1-2- Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

“ I offer encouragement to the family and friends of Mr. Gandy. God's Word promises: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~isaiah 26:19. Keep in mind: God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him. ~1 John 4:9. Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25 assure us: I am the resurrection and the life. He that excises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. Remember... God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
