“ Memories of Neal are many, especially at his Mom's home. We always gathered there as a family. What I remember most about Neal is that he was always cold. Neal was very friendly though and could really fix on cars. It's been a very long time since I've seen Neal but he will always be remembered by me and his nephews Samyel and Brett Walker Neal rest now cause you are in the hands of our heavenly Father. Your sister-in-law Shirley, always
