“ To the family of Mr. James McKenzie:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ May "the God of all comfort" ease your sorrow with his loving resurrection provision stated at Isaiah 26:19..."Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up." Keep in mind "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him. ~1 John 4:9. Jesus himself assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses." ~Psalm 46:1. He is faithful and always keeps his promises!
