“ Uncle James Mcknight, I am going to truly miss you. I remember growing up coming to your and Aunt Tee's house in Far Rockaway. I also remember you always going fishing and your working at Daytona Beach. I always used to tease you about how he tried to be like you with the long road trips and I remember you only liked to stop for gas. I always called you a trooper because that's how I look at you. I will always treasure those memories. The Spades game was also so fun, your favorite words I can show you my hand because you cannot play my hand and you throw your spades on the table when it was time to cut. I can go on and on about the memories I have for you. One thing is for certain that I will always treasure those memories. I love you forever. Love Queen, Joshua, Josiah.

“ "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this, the judgment (Heb.9:27 KJV)" Everyone of us must journey this way one day, what is known as the end of this earthly life But we have confidence in knowing that death is the gateway to eternal life for those that die in Jesus Christ So weep not when our love one's earthly journey has reached its end Because after the judgment and God says well done only then will life truly begin. My deepest thoughts, prayers, condolences, and sympathy to the family during this difficult time of bereavement. May God continue to comfort you all.

“ I miss my Cousin James "Edward" McKnight. His god given middle name was Elliott but with our South Carolina vocal presentation, the family knew him as James Edward. He was a strong willed man, who was determine to get the job done. He taught me that don't put limits on the time to get a job done, just do it. I miss my cousin, we worked together on projects and talked a lot, these are the times that I will miss. My heart is full
But I know how life is and I leave with comments that Dr. King gave at the Eulogy for 4 girls at Birmingham booming : "I hope you can find a little consolation from the universality of the experience. Death comes to every individual. There is an amazing democracy about death. It is not aristocracy for some of the people, but a democracy for all of the people. Kings die and beggars die: rich men and poor men die; old people die and young people die. Death comes to the innocent and it comes to the guilty, Death is the irreducible common denominator of all men. Rest with the ancestors!!!!
