

Mr. James Calvin "Trae" Miller III

January 23, 2015

James Calvin ("Trae") Miller III, 38, of Atlanta, GA, passed away on Friday, January 23rd.

He was born in Mobile, AL, on March 23rd, 1976 to Anne Rittelmeyer Miller and James Calvin Miller Jr. Trae attended Duluth High School in Duluth, GA, and was planning to attend Georgia Perimeter College to study nursing. Trae loved Mardi Gras, camping in North Georgia with friends, and reading. He was an avid fan of Atlanta sports teams and would have loved to see his first-place Hawks make it to the Finals. Trae is preceded in death by his father "Jimmy", grandfathers Milton Rittelmeyer and James Miller, and daughter McKenzie. He is survived by his mother Anne, sisters Heather and Katie, grandmothers Doris Rittelmeyer and Virgie Loyd, dozens of aunts, uncles and cousins, and countless loving friends. Trae's life will be remembered in a small private ceremony in Decatur, GA.

Tribute Wall

AM

“ Son not a day goes by that I don't think of you. Your sweet spirit is with me always! I miss you immensely and love you so much! Rest In Peace 💕💕

Anne Miller - July 27, 2022 at 02:00 AM

Mrs. Anne I am so sorry this is Brian. I miss Country so much he was one of the smartest individuals I ever met his range of knowledge was so broad I could talk to him about anything and he was such a good hearted guy.

Brian Howell - October 30, 2024 at 02:32 PM