“ To the Family of Mr. James Price I 'm so sorry that your loved one has falling asleep in death. I encourage you to keep God's resurrection promise in mind as you look ahead to the time when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28, 29). Remember...Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one, who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). “ I offer sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. James Price. May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you look ahead to the time when "death will be no more." God's Word promises: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25) God always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5)

“ To the Family of

I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. The Bible says at Psalm 55:22 "throw your burden upon God and he will sustain you." For more encouragement visit jw.org
