“ Mr. James Rowe and his wife Mrs. Rowe were my second set of parents when I was a toddler til I was a preteen. Everyday as I grew up I found myself at their home . I stayed next door to them. And they were so amazing . But I would watch Winnie the Pooh Bear all the time in their house. And some how my nickname from them and my family became Pooh bear! As I got older like preteen . I would still go over to visit. Any given day I'd just pop up. And they always greeted me as Pooh bear or Brand! My name is Brandon, but I never corrected them because they knew, and they meant well. But they always fed me a hot meal. They kept me out of the streets. They gave me a safe place outside of my own home. They were my Second set of parents. Mr. ROWE..... lived a good life. He was by far one of the best human beings I've encountered in my 33 years of living. The food they used to cook! My my my it was always delicious. He was always welcoming. Even after I moved from the area. I'd go by and see him anytime I came back. And he knew who I was the moment he saw me. I took my kids by there a few years ago so he could see my mini me. He would answer the door Hey Brand! When his wife was living. He would answer door and say Hey Brand! And then yell to the back to Mrs.Rowe (Pooh Bear) is here! Man great memories with the Rowe family. They were so loving. Love from Brandon Meadows Sr.
