

James T. Sinclair

July 25, 1940 - February 4, 2025

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Memorial Celebration of Life

FEB 20. 1:00 PM (ET)

Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory-Rockdale
1999 Hwy. 138 SE
Conyers, GA 30013

Tribute Wall

FS

“ Today, we gather to honor the life of a man who meant the world to me—my father, my mentor, my hero. James Sinclair was more than just a dad; he was a guiding light, a man of wisdom, strength, and unwavering love.

He gave me the skills to build a wonderful family and the life lessons that shaped me into the person I am today. Through his actions, he taught me integrity, resilience, and the importance of always doing right by others. His kindness, his laughter, and his unwavering support will forever be with me.

Though my heart is heavy with loss, I find comfort in knowing that his legacy lives on in the lessons he passed down, the love he shared, and the lives he touched.

Dad, I will miss you every day, but I will honor you in the way I live my life—just as you taught me. I hope I do you proud

*Rest in peace Pops Love
Mr. & Mrs Fabian L. Sinclair*

Fabian Sinclair - February 20, 2025 at 11:06 AM

MC

“ My paw paw was an. Amazing man he was one of my favorite people in the world he was so nice funny and smart your could go to him with anything he might not be able to here you but he Will listen and give you some of the best advice he might not had a lot but he would always make every time we spent together fun and enjoyable and mineable I was always so proud to show off my paw paw if anyone didn't know him, growing up with him anywhere we went together everyone knew him and knew how a great of a person he was there is no where I can go in his town and not be reminded of how a amazing person her was.
If I couldn't become that person he was to everyone else I wouldn't want to be anyone else
I will always love my paw paw

McKenzie - February 20, 2025 at 10:41 AM

LS

“ James was my uncle. My father's brother affectionately called hood goodie! I remember that he walked Me down the isle and gave me away in my father's absence because he had passed away when I was 17. I'm forever grateful for him being there for me when my dad couldn't. I love you and will miss you always. Rest well!

Latasha Stallworth - February 20, 2025 at 12:54 AM

BS

“ Sending prayers and my Love and my deepest condolences to the Sinclair family Sweet Jesus please wrap your loving arms around them and give them strength in this time of need please hold on to them and keep them strong he was one of a kind and he will be truly missed I can't be sad at this time Sinclair want let me I'm still laughing at how he wanted to fix that boat what I can say is that he was a friend a true friend indeed rest well my friend until we meet again.

Brinda Stodghill - February 19, 2025 at 06:38 PM

TS

“ Paw paw was an angel. He gave unconditional love and would give anyone the shirt off of his back. The best gift he gave me, was the gift of feeling welcome and that of being a father figure where that was void in my life. He created a strong legacy through the amazing men that he raised that will be carried down for generations. Humble, kind, loving...an incredible human being. I miss him.

Thank you for being more than a father in law.

Love,

Tamara M. Sinclair

Tamara Sinclair - February 19, 2025 at 09:33 AM

JV

“ James L. Virgil - Mr. V planted a Memorial Tree in honor of James T. Sinclair.

James L. Virgil - Mr. V - February 11, 2025 at 11:40 AM

JV

“ James L. Virgil - Mr. V purchased the Red Rose And Lily Standing Spray for the family of James T. Sinclair.

James L. Virgil - Mr. V - February 11, 2025 at 11:40 AM