

James Patrick Smith

May 28, 1968 - June 8, 2022

James Patrick Smith Sr, affectionately known as Patrick or Smitty, was born on May 28th, 1968 in the Caribbean island of Tortola, British Virgin Islands (BVI) to the late Tomas and Theodosia Smith. He was the sixth of eight children and like his siblings, his education started at Meyers Primary School in Tortola. In 1977, the entire family relocated to St. Thomas in the neighboring United States Virgin Islands (USVI). While in St. Thomas, James continued his education at Lockhart Elementary and Wayne Aspinall Junior High School before moving on to New Jersey where he attended the Edison Job Corps Training Center. He completed his training at the Job Corps and earned certification in Building Maintenance including HVAC, electrical, plumbing and carpentry.

Upon completion of his training, he was hired by the Marriott Corporation in New Jersey/New York where he worked as a maintenance technician. He then transferred to the Courtyard Hotel at the Atlanta Airport and before moving to the Stone Mountain Inn located in Stone Mountain, GA where he worked as an engineering supervisor until his retirement in July 2017. Cumulatively, he provided over 30 years of service to the Marriott Corporation. After retirement, he continued to utilize his plumbing, electrical, painting and carpentry skills for a variety of remodeling projects, as well as working for Home Depot in Buford, GA.

Coming from a large family, James loved spending time with his siblings and their families. Whether it was for a cookout, Thanksgiving, Christmas or other family gatherings, James would be the center of attention and made the occasion memorable by telling stories, making jokes, picking on people and making everyone laugh. In December 2020 James was diagnosed with cancer. He endured surgery, radiation and chemotherapy and was declared a survivor after the treatment and follow up appointments. James had been looking forward to visiting his childhood home in Tortola for Christmas this year, but sadly it was not meant to be. The cancer returned and changed everything. While in the hospital, James accepted that his time with us was limited and he declared that he was at peace with it and with God. His last words reassured us that "Everything will be all right". On June 8th, 2022 James transitioned from this life to eternity.

James leaves behind his wife, Tania, sons James Jr. and Justin. Daughter Alexis, stepdaughter Martina. Brothers Ira, Bernard, Arnold, Otis and Sylvester. Sisters Delsia and Angela. Godmothers Carmen Howell and Rosemary King. Father-in-Law Murray Dyer, Mother-in-law Bernetta Henry, Brothers-in-law Austin George, Timothy B. McDowell Sr., Marlon Williams, Kevin and Damion Dyer. Sisters-in-law Leticia, Joycelyn, Marva and Onika Smith, Karen Jean-Charles, Andrea and Trecia Dyer. Nephews Gregory George, Bernard Jr., Jadon and Seyande Smith, Timothy Jr., Antonio and Mikal McDowell, Sejayi Huyghue. Nieces Deriece Malone, Bernice Johnson, Learice Bembridge, Berenice, Leanice, Jalezcia, Iyanna, Janai, and Semaya Smith. Great nephews Rahyim George, Josai Huyghue and Xavier Bembridge. Great niece Ysabel Malone. He is also survived by the descendants of the late Rosa George, the late Helen Christophena King, the late Clarita Purcell, the late Florida Percival, the late Christophena Forbes, the late Isabella Hodge and the late Monroe Mactavious.

“ It's never easy to lose someone we love, especially when that person is in the prime of their life. We were immensely shocked and saddened by James' passing, and so, could imagine what you all must be going through. God knows our end from our beginning, however, and He has the final say.

To us, James Sr was a jovial individual with an adorable personality. The pleasant interactions that we've had with him during our family reunions and whenever he visited the BVI on occasions will forever be etched in our hearts.

We extend sincere and heartfelt condolences to James' spouse Tania, sons James Patrick Jr and Justin, daughter Alexis, stepdaughter Martina, his siblings and extended family members. Like scattered seeds, memories bloom forever. May you find solace in the blessed and cherished memories of your dearly beloved, James Patrick Smith Sr.

We pray that your hearts would be comforted by the words of holy scripture found in St. John 14:1, "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me."

May the soul of James Patrick Smith Sr rest in eternal peace!

“ Dear family,
I extend my sincere condolences to you all in the loss of cousin Patrick. I pray God will heal the pain and the empty void in your hearts like only He can. Without Him, we will not be able to keep it together in times of loss and grief.

As Christians we do not grieve as those who have no hope, but we have hope that we will see our loved ones who once lived for Christ and we will never ever have to say goodbye again.

My practical advice to you is that it is okay to cry as that's one way you will begin to heal. No matter what the world tells us that men shouldn't show their emotions. Talking about your husband, father, brother, uncle and cousin also helps to keep his memory alive. I like the part of the eulogy that talked about his sense of humor and was the life of the party.

In the future you can do some tangible things such as planting a tree in his honor and letting a birthday balloon go on his birthday.

May the lord bless you and keep you, may He make His face to shine upon you and give you peace.

“ Memories of James enter my mind and I remember him for the kind man he was and the way he could always make me laugh and smile with the most simple of words.

Even though, I only met James a few times, I am grateful to have had spent that quality time with him and you all. You welcomed me into your home and your hearts and for that I am truly thankful.

My heart is feeling heavy with sadness but also full of love for all the precious ones James leaves behind.

With all my love I think of you and with all my strength I pray for you.

For James....rest in peace my friend, until we meet again. 💙

“ From the BRYAN(London, England)
Tanya this is for you and your hubby Just give thank for all those wonderful years he's made brighter just by being with him. There have been more of them than you can count. Thinking of the good life you've both lived and enjoyed, the great times you've both shared and the feeling of gratefulness for you both. He's been such an important part of your life and for that you'll always be grateful. James was a kind, humble and a wonderful husband and Father.. but God will you and the family the strength to overcome with your loss.. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
