“ My deepest condolences to the family of James Statom, sorry for your loss. Jim was the best employee that I had working for me, he truly was so kind and helpful. He would cook and feed me every day, and boy could he cook. I lost contact with him over the years but I never stopped thinking about him. Please rest in paradise my friend ❤️ my memories will Always out shadow the fact that you have transitioned. Blessings Mary Paschall Jordan

“ My dearest uncle Jimmy. My heart is broken. You were the kindest most thoughtful man ever.

You were lovable and so much fun to be around. You never met a stranger. If anyone was in your presence for more than 5 minutes you considered them family and treated them as such. If someone needed anything, you would give it. If they needed the shirt off your back, money out of your pocket or to eat, you would take them to a restaurant and feed them and not fast food, you would really take them to a restaurant and give them a decent meal. You never judged or mistreated anyone. You opened up his home to anyone who needed a play to stay. God watched over you as you would pick up strangers and give them rides, you truly had a heart of gold.

As I write this note with tears in my eyes, I remember when I moved to Atlanta and without hesitation, you allowed me to move into your home with you. You took great care of me and made me feel comfortable and at home. I've never forgotten that and I'll always remember how happy you were to have me there and show me around and introduced me to people. I will cherish those memories forever.

I'm devastated knowing I cant see you or hear your voice just one last time.

I'm so very grateful for the time and space and laughter we shared and for the memories you've left me with; I will cherish them forever.

I'm grateful you don't have to suffer anymore, you got your wings....until we meet again my uncle, my cousin, my friend, my ride anywhere, go anywhere favorite human. Life will never be the same without you. I'll miss you always.

I love you and you'll always be in my heart, always.

Love your niece/cousin Dutchess, Jessica, and Jaden

“ Uncle Jimmy was a kind gentle soul. He was there for every birthday of his grand nieces and nephews. He would slip them a dollar bill which made them smile. I will miss him on family events. I know he is in God's care.
My sincere condolences to his/our family. Till we meet again Uncle Jimmy.

*A butterfly perched on my lap today
It sat there still as if to say
I come with a message from above
Jimmy sends his eternal love*

*I had to go, I could not stay
Not another second, not another day
My Father said, your work is done
Your race is won
Come on home my faithful son
Take this crown and wear it proud, you are Heaven bound
Jesus took me by the hand
And said, at my side you now will stand*

*Don't cry for me for I am free
Heaven, one we all will be
Your time will one day come
And God will say welcome home my precious one
Until then, go with grace and go with love
Your loved ones will be waiting for you in Heaven above...*

“ Sending sincere condolences to the family on your loss of a good and caring friend. He was a devoted classmate who always greeted you with a smile and offered his help whenever needed. May he rest now, no more pain, no more illness...only the love of Jesus to care for him now.
