“ You will be missed. We have laughed and joked for hours almost everyday. You were a dear friend. I appreciate all the help you gave me. You constantly checked on me during my cancer journey. It still does not seem real. I feel like I have lost a brother.

“ It was an absolute honor to have gotten to know James over the past year. James lit up every room he stepped into and never had a bad attitude. He and I shared many conversations of the absolute love of his family he had. He was a beautiful soul and truly will be missed by his JBH family and friends.
