“ Sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. Waddell. I was his supervisor for a brief period at DeKalb County Sheriff's Office. He was an interesting guy! 😊

“ Zina Baldwin
I will cherish the time (even though it was brief) that I got to spend with James. He was a caring, stand up guy who believed in giving back to help others. We will miss him but his suffering is no more!
Rest in Heaven my Friend.

“ I truly love my brother. He was a very kind and helpful soul. Anything he could help me with, he did. Even though things between us changed, we were able to tell each other how much we love each other before his passing. I will always treasure the good times. You are in a better place now, no longer in pain. Rest in God's loving care, and hug mama and daddy for me. I miss you all, and although you're no longer present on earth, you are always present in my heart, and I will always love you.

“ Uncle Jimmy,

It feels surreal to be writing this. It's been far too long since we truly connected, and so much has happened in our family. I find comfort in knowing that during your final days, you found the strength to mend the rift that had hung between you and Mom for so many years. Your decision to make peace, even in the shadow of illness, speaks volumes about the love that still existed in our hearts.

Cancer has taken so many from our family, and the pain of loss hits close to home. Your passing marks yet another chapter in our shared story of grief, but also of hope and healing. Despite the struggles, I am grateful that you are now free from the burdens you carried.

I'll always remember the moments we've shared, even the difficult ones. I pray that Grif and Syd find solace in knowing your worries are over. You've completed your work here, and now it's time to rest easy. You're reunited with Granddad, Grandma, Aunt Sput, Aunt Anna, and all the Waddells who came before you. Send my love to all of them.

Rest in peace, Uncle Jimmy.
