“ I, Angela Watson, wants to thank all of you for your kind words, prayers, and love that you have shown James. He made peace with the Lord's decision. We were like 2 peas in a pod. There is no words that I can describe how I feel at this moment. JamesReg, you are the best brother that a sister can ask for....Please make sure you give our mom a big hug and let her know that her kids miss her much.

Who loves you? I DO?

“ To The Family & Friends,
I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. Death is something that we can never get use to because it affects us all. Please allow me to share with you some encouraging words that I found in God's word the Bible. “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will REALLY HELP YOU.” (Isaiah 41v10 please read) These words are reliable and true. So Continue to “throw all your anxiety upon him Jehovah God (Psalms 83v18 please read) because HE CARES FOR YOU.”(1 Peter 5v7 please read) For more encouraging info please visit www.jw.Org

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. James Watson. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family: I offer condolences and comforting promises that God makes regarding our loved ones who fall asleep in death. God's provision to restore dead loved ones to life gives us the assurance..."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving promise when he said:"I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:24). God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

James was a nice, clean, humorous gentle man, I enjoyed each time we met and talked. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. It's great to know we WILL meet again, in Heaven. What a joy to know it's not goodbye, but "See ya again Brother". May God encircle the family and loved ones and hold each in his loving arms. Howard Sorsdahl
