“ Dear Jackson and Harris Families,

It was with a great sense of loss when we heard of the passing of Jimmy. We wanted to let you know that you have our deepest sympathy and that our hearts are saddened. Jimmy was more than a wonderful person; he was always so kind and considerate, and it was always a blessing to be in his presence. We know that his passing will leave a void in your lives, and also in the hearts of those who knew him and loved him.

We are sorry that we cannot be in Georgia at this most difficult time in your lives. We do, though, extend our thoughts, prayers and heartfelt sympathy to the entire family.

With love and sympathy,

*Alton and Sadie Miles

“ We had the pleasure to meet Jimmy over the phone and through photos a few years ago. When Jimmy and my husband who is Jimmy's half brother made contact for the first time; they bonded instantly and stayed in touch with each other. They did not get the chance to meet physically but a close relationship grew between them. We will miss Jimmy and the long talks... Rodney and Delores Phillips
