“ My dear friend Jan. I'm sorry I couldn't be with you or see you before your homecoming. You will always be in my heart and I will always remember when I was in Georgia how you and I would go to the store and hang out for a short while.

You will forever be missed and will always be in my heart.

Take care my dear friend and we will meet again! I LOVE YOU!

My sincere condolences to the family who is my family and I will always love you.

“ I will miss you dearly, Ms. Jan. You were one of the kindest and loving people that I ever had the honor of meeting. You were always willing to pray for Skye and I and you always had a word of encouragement to share. I will miss your morning messages which were always filled with cheer and words of hope. I am blessed to have known you. Heaven has gained a beautiful soul. With love always, Tomiyo

“ You were my second mom growing up. You gave me so much knowledge about life and I forever grateful for that. Even though you are no longer physically here I know you will continue to shine your spiritual guidance to the family. Please tell my mom hello for me and don't let her talk your ear off like she used to do.

“ Aunt Jan
You will forever be remembered for your sweet smile and your ability to bring joy to everyone you meet. You taught me to be patient, and for that I will always think of you when my patience runs low.
I love you

“ Aunt Jan

You are truly going to be missed. I love you. You were the one who first taught me to be lady like. I remember spending nights at your house and staying up late. I remember McDonald's in the morning before getting dropped of at school. I remember you correcting me when I didn't use proper English (smile). You were a stickler about speaking properly lol. You were my other mother away from my dads house. I can hear you say "Oh Don" when he would say something crazy lol. Once I got older I can recall us sharing our experiences with God. You were the best Aunt. I pray your rejoicing and dancing with the Angels. See you in Paradise.

“ Aunt Jan,

I'm truly holding back my tears right now. I'm going to miss you with all my heart. I sat back as a child and used to say "I want to be like her when I get older". You were such a lady. The way you spoke and carried yourself such a graceful manner. The way you loved all of us, and should things about the world. Made me love you more. I thank you for give me apart of you. My heart is broken just a that much more. Kiss my papa, Nana and my sister for me. I love you Aunt Jan!

“ Darling Jan, you were everything that represented Jesus, our Lord. Oh, how you loved Him and expressed it in your life. From a little girl you were gentle, sweet, loving and kind. You left your mark on the life of everyone you knew. What an honor to be related to one as precious and prized as you. You will live in our hearts and never be forgotten.

Sincerely, Roy and Betty

“ Aunt Jan, the thing I will remember most is your kind smile and soft tone when I was a little girl and all the funny stories my mom would share about you guys when you were younger. You leave behind beautiful children and grandchildren to carry on your legacy and tell your story. Rest well now with your Heavenly Father.

“ Mother Jan, you were dear to my heart. Thank you for your love, encouragement, support and listening ear. You never judged me and always shared your thoughts with love accompanied by laughter. Your love for God showed in your love for family and friends. Rest well, until we meet again. Rev. Gumbs.

“ You were everything to me! You taught me so many things: how to be a strong, educated woman and confident woman. I miss our talks- you always had a word- with a spiritual message tied to it! You always inspired me based on your story ... There wasn't a challenge, you didn't tackle with grace and with the BEST Attitude.. 🌸 You are free from all of life's adversity! You are surrounded by your Heavenly Father and looking down on us smiling! We always talked about you not being afraid of death because you knew you were going- with a smile on your face! 😊 I will forever miss you mommy- your physical presence, soft skin and your “oh Shawnda” voice! Know that you were the best mother Lamar and I could have had! May you rest in eternal paradise in Peace! Until I see you again mommy, I love you always! 💕🌸💕

“ Aunt Jan. I will always remember spending summer weekends with you as a kid. You were the cool aunt that pretty much let us do what we wanted (to some extent). I will never forget you taking me to my first real Chinese restaurant (not take out of course 😊) somewhere in San Bernardino. You called me sweetie all the time, even as an adult. You never spanked me, but made known you would, I can hear her voice saying 'Do you want me to spank your behind'? I will truly miss your morning messages. I Love you aunt Jan, you will be miss 😭
Te quiero much tia, y un dia si Dios quiere estamos juntos ❤️
