“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mrs. Janette Shy. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future.

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible.
“.....Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” (Revelation 21: 3 & 4)When God’s will take place on the earth as in the heaven, God’s Kingdom will fulfill the promise in this scripture.
Jesus, who will be the king of God’s Kingdom also promised that “those in the memorial tombs will...come out.” (John 5:28, 29) and “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” (Psalms 37:29)

“ To the Family:

May God's loving provision to raise up loved ones who fall asleep in death be a source of comfort to you all. Remember..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9).

Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
