“ My memory of our Dear Mother Janice Hurst, was her "RED" lip stick. I would say "Mother, you sho' wearing that lip stick today, it looks so good on you, and when I grow up, I'm gonna wear it just like you". And she would laugh, holding and patting my hand. She will be missed. While we are holding on to the love and not the lost, we will continue to look to the hills from whence cometh our help, which is the Lord.

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted....Matthew 5:4

May God Bless and Be with the Hurst Family...

“ My condolences to you all and may you gain comfort as you keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in restoring life to dead ones when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.

“ To William Hurst and the Hurst family. My condolences are with you my church members, as here in this earthly realm we weep as we are filled with despair and pain thats unexplainable. However, in the spirtual realm God gets the glory as he makes no mistakes for death leaves a heartache no once can heal, but love leaves a Memory that no one can steal. May the love that Mother Hurst shared with you and us remain in our hearts forever. I pray peace, unity, love and collaboration to the family,

“ My condolences on your lost. As believers we have the comfort of knowing that even death can't separate us. Scripture reminds us in 2 Cor. 5:8, To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. This is not good by just see you for now. Your sister in Christ, Mildred Clifton.
