“ Louise I'm really missing you I remember those days that we had together and I will cherish those days forever. Jan and Jeremiah keep up the good work that your mother en stilled in you and don't for get about your dad remember the good days that you'll had together and Louise will always be right in the mist of it all. If their is something that you need just call her she will come in spirit for you to get your answer. Remember the past and you can make it in the future. My prayers and well wishes or with you'll and don't forget to hold your head up. Louise is still right their with you watching over you to help you make the right decision.Remember to give GOD the praise and thanks in all that you do.Loving AuntJoann
