“ Theres another new Angel in Heaven, I've known Jasmine since the 80's and she was ALWAYS been the same warm, kind, friendly persona that we all knew. I can still hear her warm and vibrant laughter. It was a joy knowing and talking to her. To her family and other friends, I offer my condolences and prayers. Jasmine is in a better place, resting with the Lord as his new Angel. Rest on, ...Until we meet again

“ My prayers and heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Glenn-Watkins families. Jasmine was a beautiful person inside and out. I have great memories of working with her while she was in Birmingham working for I.R.S. We often shared memories of various church activities and talked about the Christian Values that our parents instilled in us. My heart was saddened to hear of her demise. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Now she's reunited with her parents, sister and other relatives in the presence of The Lord. Good night my friend, I will see you in the morning 🙏❤️

“ To Jasmine's Family and Friends:

How blessed we are to have loved, laughed and served alongside Jasmine.

"The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.

The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.

The music stops and yet it lingers on in sweet refrain;

For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains."

Though we will miss your presence, we know, God chooses the best to sing with His angels in Heaven. "Oh to Be Kept"

“ My heart is saddened by the loss of our sweet Jazz. Your mom Mrs. Glenn was the epitome of grace and class which she groomed you and so many of us with as young girls. I have precious memories of visiting your family as a young lady, and church functions. Rest easy Sis. See you later! 💔

“ I'll miss you so much Jasmine. I'm so thankful for your friendship over the years. You were friends with my mom when she was living and I'm glad that we became friends as well. Thank you for your dedication to The Instruments of Praise Orchestra and studying with me for your violin lessons. Thanks for being a shoulder to cry on and for the wisdom that you imparted to me. Much love to Desmond, your sisters, and family going forward.

“ My condolences to Jasmine's family. I met Jasmine at Clark College many years ago and always knew what was going on with her through a mutual friend. I was reunited with her at church and when I went to work for GSA. She was always so kind to me and I will never forget her sweet spirit. My only regret is that I did not get an opportunity to speak with her to let her know just how special of a person she was to me and others. She will truly be missed!!!!

Keeping the family in prayer.

“ I remember when I first met Jasmine, Grechal myself and her went to a play together and had the time of our lives, afterwards we went to dinner. I thought they were going to put us out of the place we were laughing so hard about the play, life and just sharing the word of God . I couldn't wait to the next get together because she was such a nice person and was so down to earth. It make me so sad we didn't get a change to see another play together on this side, but Jasmine you will be missed and I will see you at the next play on the other side. To the family to be absent from the body means to be present with the Lord!

I spent quite a bit of time speaking to and texting Jasmine during her valiant battle against sickness and disease. Jasmine was a kindhearted friend and valued Classmate. She loved to laugh and enjoy life. We spent a bit of time with her husband on our memorable 60th birthday celebration when our class of 73 bused to New Orleans from Bham. She was truly a kind spirit and a beautiful blessing to me. My texts to her were to stay Dragon strong. She did, I believe until her last breath.
