“ I had the pleasure of knowing Jasmynn for aeveral years when she visited with her grandmother, Mother Olivia Skinner ar the Greatee Mt Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church, Tallahassee, Florida.

Jasmynn, although young had great wisdom. She was a junior Bible scholar and was not shamed to utilize her God given talents I was shocked to her of her passing, but glad to how she shared her love and kindness in Sunday School. God picked a beautiful flower and no doubt, Jasmynn will be sharing her bible knowledge. I will miss her boldness and unique smile and laughter. My big Jasmyn and i will miss our little Jasmynn. May God bless her family. Thanks for entrusting me with Jasmynn.

“ My sweet princess cousin! I miss you terribly already. Memories of your smile and joyfulness flood my mind. I love you dearly but I know God loves you more! I don't know why, but God allowed this, so he has a plan. I pray that testimonies and blessings will shine through this and remind us of God's grace, mercy, and love. You will forever live in my heart!

“ Jasmynn was my great niece. She was a smart little girl and she possessed leadership qualities. She always told me that she wanted to go to Harvard University when she graduated from high school and I always encouraged her to keep studying and that she could obtain that goal. I will miss Jasmynn's sweet smile.
