

Javaris Deonte' Spalding

April 2, 1998 - April 20, 2024

Javaris "Java" D. Spalding, 26, of Atlanta, GA, passed away on April 20 2024. He was born on April 2, 1998, in Atlanta, GA.

Javaris was known as one of the most gentle human beings you'll ever meet. He was a loving hardworking man; a beloved Son, Brother, Uncle and Friend. He is survived by his mother, Phyllis Spalding, his father, James Spalding, his sister, Shanika Spalding, and his brother, Tank Spalding.

After graduating MLK High School, Javaris started his career working as a stocker for Food Depot and eventually becoming a Store Manager at his own store also lending his skills at multiple locations throughout Atlanta.

His hobbies included participating in ROTC, attending NASCAR events as a passionate racing fan, traveling, playing with his niece, and of course, working. Javaris's smile & heart warming soul will forever be remembered by Family & Friends who knew & loved him. It was truly our honor to know you.

A service to honor and remember Javaris will be held at Gregory B. Levett & Sons in Conyers, GA, on Tuesday, May 7, 2024, at 6 pm.

“ Java was always making us laugh when he would come to store 65. He will be greatly missed at our Food Depot. I'll miss his telling me Your shoe is untied! No matter how many times he said it, I would still look to see and he just kept going on his way laughing the entire time. RIP Java
