

Jaylin Kariem Newson

October 4, 1995 - June 12, 2025

Jaylin “JayJay” Newson entered into eternal rest on June 12, 2025, at Northside Gwinnett Hospital. Jaylin was born in New Haven, Ct., to James and Mildred (Lawrence) Newson. Jaylin attended Eli Whitney and studied culinary arts before transferring to Milford Christian Academy. Jaylin relocated to Lawrenceville, Ga., during his sophomore year. He attended and graduated from Mountain View High School. After graduation he attended Gwinnett Technical College to study Culinary Arts.

Along his journey, Jaylin loved church & was a devoted member of the New Haven Church of Christ, The Whitney Ave Church of Christ & the Gwinnett Church of Christ. Jaylin became the director of the” Feed the Homeless” program at eighteen.

Jaylin was a chef at the Northeast Georgia Medical Center for the last five years. The Hospital staff loved partaking of his meals. He was also the C.E.O. and President of FAT BOYZ CUISINE, where he catered and did meal prep. Jaylin was a bright shining light, and his presence was felt wherever he went. He loved his family and always made sure that everyone was safe. Often calling asking “Where are you? Why didn’t you call me when you got there?” He was always quick with a joke, or laugh, and even quicker to offer help, even when he was sick. Jaylin never met a stranger and was loved by everyone that he came in contact with. He was an avid New York Giants, Knicks and Mets fan. He would often attend games when they were in town. Jaylyn’s passion was cooking, and he planned to open a food truck so that he could bless the world with his culinary gift. It was how he showed his love. Everyone got excited when he cooked. Especially when he made his famous fried chicken and macaroni and cheese.

Jaylin is survived by his parents; siblings Jamil and Jayson Newson of Winder, Ga., Harry Mayo of Hartford Ct., Tatyana Newson, Daylen Barron, Declan Cox, Trenton and Titan Fields of Lawrenceville, Ga., Cousin Terrell Griffin of Winder, Ga., and his soulmate Jaynay Charles. He is survived by a host of family and friends.

“ I was saddened to hear of Jaylin's passing. He was a wonderful young man. I remember our interactions and he always had me laughing about something. He made the best Mac & cheese. I know your hearts are heavy but know you are not alone. Continue to hold to God's unchanging hand and He will see you through. May you find Peace and Comfort.
