

Jean Lesly Charles

September 1, 1960 - May 14, 2020

Jean Lesly Charles was born September 01, 1960 and walked with angels and joined his wife of many years on May 14, 2020. He was born Croix-des-Bouquets, Haiti, the baby of nine children. Jean Lesly Charles came to American in 1979 at the tender age of 19, to Brooklyn, New York. He worked in a paper factory, for awhile, but he was mostly a taxi driver. After a couple of years their in New York, he and he family moved to a little town called Seaford in Delaware where he spent most of his years as a forklift operator for Mountaire Farms chicken factory. After about 11 years in Delaware, his last stop was to Georgia. Jean Charles is survived by two loving adult children who was by his side, his oldest Christtela Charles which whom has a seven year old named Christian. Christian is charles first loving grandchild, which he loved dearly and responded proudly to being called "poppa". Charles also is survived by a loving son named Junior Lesley Charles. We lost a wonderful father, brother, son, uncle and friend, he loves his wife, kids. music, and friends. Charles loves to smile, dance, drink and sing. When you see light, you see Charles.
