“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Jean Lyons Leach. No one can completely understand what you are going through right now. We who have lost loved ones have an idea but losing someone affects us all differently. What we do have that is a wonderful provision for us all, is a caring, loving Heavenly Father who is here to give us the comfort and support we need during painful times such as this. He is called at 2Corinthians 1: 3,4 the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials. At Acts 24:15 he gives us the hope of seeing our departed ones again. What wonderful blessings he holds out to all of us. I truly hope you will be able to find solace in his words. May you also have the loving support of family and friends during this difficult time.

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Leach: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. May God's loving resurrection provision (1John 4:9) comfort you all as you look ahead to the time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29). God promises: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). God always fulfills his promises! (Joshua 23:14).
