“ Sorrow to hear about your loss. Me and Jeffrey were friends. We worked at the DoubleTree Hotel in Buckhead for years together. We always talked a lot about God words and Rev. Jerry E. Black pastor at Beulah Missionary Baptist Church, New Life Church in Decatur, GA. and other churches. Me and Jeffrey had some good times laughing. I will miss him. We texts and talked often since Covid-19 ended my employment at DoubleTree. Jeffrey was a lovely, friendly, nice and kind person to everyone. I texted Jeffrey a few weeks ago and he texted me back and said he will call me soon. That was the last thing he texted to me. It hurts to see him go but he is in a better place in God Kingdom. Me and Jefrey always talked about the song 'I want Complain.' Be strong. God is in control. Jeffrey has won the race. Willie McKnight

“ Jeffrey and I worked together at the Doubletree in Buckhead where he delivered outstanding service for many years. I loved making him laugh and he himself was quite hilarious. Loved cutting up with him every opportunity I got. One of the strongest men of faith I've ever known. I'll miss him dearly.
