“ There are a lot of things I can say about Jeff, however, I think the most memorable thoughts of him was that laugh! When he laughed you laughed!! You couldn't help it!! I have been knowing Jeff for over 30 years!! For all 30 years, he was always so kind, thoughtful, caring, and witty!! I am never going to forget you!! May we all find comfort in knowing that you are in a better place!! For weeping may endure but a night, but joy cometh in the morning!!

“ This is to extend our sincere condolences to Jeff's family. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this sorrowful time. Jeff was my co-worker, confidant and friend. We worked and played together for many years at the Department of Labor. We enjoyed each other's company very much - especially during fun times (breakfast time, lunch time and break time). We all know Jeff enjoyed his meals. Jeff never let me down nor his DOL family. He was always there for everyone. His cheerful disposition and willingness to help others is irrefutable. Jeff was a man of character and exuded nothing but kindness and compassion to all. His gracious presence will be sorely missed. It's difficult to lose someone who meant so much to all of us and even harder that we can't be together. We want you to know that we are with you in spirit - now and in the days and weeks to come.

May Jeff sleep in peace.

“ I grew up with Jeff, could not mistake his laugh 😂 Big gentle giant. I think I saw him angry one time in 40 something years. Gonna miss his silly After Game highlights. My boy.

“ I met and knew Jeff through my sister Anna, Jeff's co-worker at US. Department of Labor. He was a very pleasant man to be around. With every occasion he attended, he graced our presence with joy and laughter. Despite what he was going through, it was always good company with his presence. Sociable, pleasant - such beautiful qualities.

Jeff will definitely be missed.

Respectfully, Cecilia Rambert

“ Jeff was truly a kind and joyful man. That big smile was the first thing you noticed about him. I enjoyed working with him and our continued communication after I left the agency. We enjoyed joking with each other over our sports teams rivalries. I will miss his texts and emails.

To his family, I offer my sincerest condolences and prayers. Jeff will always have a place in my heart. RIP My Friend.
