“ Jeffrey Callender is a husband that loved his wife and treated her like a Queen. In remembering the time when Rosie came home with us from a MK conference while it was pouring down rain; we laughed at how Jeffrey came out the door with a large umbrella and escorted Rosie into the house. We teased her about being extra special and that she was being treated like royalty. We watched with joy as they walked together like a courting couple into house! Rosie, thank you for being the wonderful person that you are, for sharing that beautiful moment with Jeffrey and as you remember him; take Isaiah 57:1 to heart on how Godly men are given peace, 🙏❤️✝️

“ Dear Rosie and family:
Although this is one of the times along life's journey that can test the spirit deeply, may you and the family never stop believing that your faith, your inner strength, and the power of God's love will carry you through. May Jeff rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ *To the Callender: I am very sorry to hear of Jeffery's passing. I was not fortunate to meet Jeffery in person, but we became very good Email friend over the years. We became connected through another cousin and am very glad the time we shared. I will miss Jeffery and I know all of his family will also. On behalf of the Sealy family (cousins) I wish to extend our sincere sympathy to his family

“ Jeff, I just cannot believe that you are gone! Life is really short & all of a sudden, our loved ones leave us forever. I remember the day Rosie came from a West Indian party she attended in London in 1969 and told me that she met someone at the party. We were then sharing a flat in London where we were doing our postgraduate programmes in our respective fields. She said that he was an American soldier stationed in Germany. I thought nothing of it because we were both trying to finish our studies so that we could return home to our respective Countries. I was therefore shocked when a few months after, Rosie told me that she was getting married to Jeff. I asked her whether she was sure that Jeff is the right one and she said that she was. That was 54years ago! Jeff remained a devoted husband to Rosie all his life. He was a very loving, kind, humble & respectful person. Whenever, he answers the phone when I call Rosie, I always hear him call out to Rosie in a polite tune, " Rosie, Doris is on the phone" I shall miss hearing his gentle & kind voice. May his gentle soul rest in peace. Adieu dear Jeff.

Jeff,

You were my true friend, neighbor, confidant, and brother. I will truly miss our almost daily driveway conversations.

We saw our families grow together. We shared times of joy as well as the tough times. I thank you for 37 years of friendship.

I can't believe you are gone.

You truly made an impact on my life.

Rest in Peace my friend.

Jeff,

You were always so kind to me in my days at Merrill Lynch. I knew who I could always count on to give me assistance and advise. Knowing you were always there to give all the CA's a hand made our work lives better. Knowing you and having you in my life made me a better person. Thank you, Jeff, you will be greatly missed by all.

Rest in Peace.

Mellie
