“ Jeff was such a bright spot during our days at LM. He took it upon himself to set up 2 computer monitors for me to make my job easier. We became fast friends and he would stop by my desk often and we'd laugh and laugh! I will always remember his great smile and warm nature. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ Jeff, they say people come into your life for a reason, season or a lifetime. I'm so happy our season at LM was one of fun and laughter. I'm going to miss you during football season. Debating about the Falcons & Redskins (Washington Football Team). I'm going to miss our 'cooking lessons'. LOL And you were right, I can't find your special pepper in GA! I've been really sad this week. But I know you are at peace. I know you have all the angels smiling and laughing. Journey on my brother, Rest In Peace. ❤️🙏❤️. My sincere condolences to the Johnson Family. 🙏

“ Jeff was just a JOY to be around. I will never forget our last texts while Jeff was in the ICU, even then he did not worry. My days at work will never be the same. The office laughs and jokes will be different without Jeff. My memories I have of Jeff are a true blessing. Rest Easy My Dear Friend. Tracey Warren

“ I know my friend Jeff is in a much better place, he's probably already trying to help someone with his signature smile gleaming from ear to ear! Rest in Power my friend!

“ I pray that Jeff's family have strength during this sad time. I like to remember Jeff as a guy that used to walk through my work area and always said hi and joked about silly stuff. He was a really kind person. Those silly moments are things that allow us to celebrate is life even though we are sad.

“ I worked with Jeff as one of the suppliers for the C-130J program. Jeff was always kind, cordial, upbeat, and treated us as partners - a rare and refreshing relationship in our industry. Please know that I'm praying for God's comfort, blessing, and strength during this difficult time. The Lord will see you through! (Philippians 4:13).
