

Jemal Richardson

June 4, 1969 - June 13, 2022

Jemal Richardson was born to the late Cynthia Richardson and James Baylor. Jemal attended school in the Philadelphia area, he worked multiple jobs but working with people with intellectual disabilities was his greatest passion. Jemal became disabled due to several health conditions, but he still lived life to the fullest. Jemal had three siblings His lovely sister Michelle Richardson whom he adored and loved dearly. 2 Brothers Benny and Eddie Richardson .

Jemal had two sons by his first love Wendy Gordon, Jemal Richardson Williams Junior and Jermaine Richardson Williams. Jemal also raised two other children as his own Melvin Washington and Erica Pryor. Jemal had 9 grandchildren whom he truly loved and adored and they felt the same about him. Jemal was in love with his longtime fiancé of 12 years Francine Bonner their love for one another was real and solid. I had never seen him so happier. They enjoyed traveling dining and social events together. Jemal had great wisdom knowledge and would give you great advice! He became very spiritual and close to the Lord. He loved spending time with his grandchildren and to them Jemal was affectionately known as J boogie J Jonah Jameson Pop Pop his presence was truly felt among us and he will be truly missed.

Yes we are the left behind family and when tears stop and the mourning ends the sun will shine through to honor and remember this great man for who he was is and forever will be. Jemal J Pop Pop J Boogie did all he could to make a difference in our lives. He lived and died making a difference for us all and now it's time for us to pay it forward.

Jemal leaves his legacy of love to Cherrish along with many memories to his confidant soul Sister Adrienne Horton fiancé Francine Bonner his children Jemal Richardson Williams and wife Hakima. Jermaine Richardson his wife Paula. His lovely sister Michelle Richardson and her sons Frank Jami and Jabree.

To Uncle Howard uncle Mark known as uncle Billy Bop he really loved and looked up to you guys.

Also to a whole host of nephews nieces cousins and extended family Khena Tish what a legacy of love.

Jemal a great man you are and will always be to all of us this is the legacy we have from you.

You taught us to love and how to fight! you gave us strength you gave us might, a stronger person we could never find.

You had cancer you beat that! You had 2 heart attacks you beat that! You had 2 strokes you beat that! 4 amputations you survived that! Became blind in your left eye, you excepted that! no matter what, you always remained to be kind. You fought for us all one way or another not just as a husband not just as a father for all of us you gave your all up to your last breath. Now it is your time to rest.

So go in peace, power and rest in Paradise for you have earned your sleep .

Your love is in our hearts where we will eternally keep .
