“ Aunt Jenny, I will miss your smile and your soft spoken voice. You were always so cheerful, kind and genuine. I wish I had more time with you. It feels so unreal that I won't see you again. I will miss our talks, the birthday and Christmas texts and will forever cherish the memories I have of you.

“ Big sister/ cousin friend, confidante. You were a beautiful soul. I had no idea that I would be writing a tribute to you at this time.

Your kindness knows no bounds.. You were one of my supporters for my church rally or any other event. Your love for your family was unquestionable.

We would often talk about our childhood and laugh at ourselves. You helped to steer me into the person I am today, and for that, I am grateful. Our conversations would go on for hours sometimes. Chris would be in the background saying, "Jenifer, it's you and Jannette." I would often call to ask your advice or opinion on a matter, and you would give me your honest opinion.

Maybe not the answer I favored at the time, but after careful analysis it I realized you were right. I love you, and I was never afraid to express it. I will miss hearing you calling me baby or Jannette girl.... Sleep in eternal peace 💕

“ Consummate confidante, Big Sister, and 'go-to' person.

Your gentle, caring ways and listening ears have provided an outlet for my 'need to talk' stories or just recounting both our many and varied life experiences that ultimately shaped our lives.

Your honesty, kindness, and integrity were your hallmarks. Even when you were suffering, you never placed the emphasis on you, but wanted to know if I and others were ok.

You lived your life in thoughtful service and dedication to family, Church, and those you encountered along your life's pathway.

May we long remember you for your laughter, sense of humour, and most of all your devotion to God and your family.

God has called you home. Rest in Peace, my dear Sister!

“ It is an honor to share the loving memory of a truly remarkable soul, Jenifer, our dear friend, whose life was a testament to grace, kindness, and unwavering faith. She carried herself with a quiet dignity and an unassuming elegance that touched every heart fortunate enough to know her. Always helpful and supportive, her thoughtful actions spoke louder than words, embodying the very essence of Christian love in every moment.

Her family stood at the center of her world, and through her daily example, she showed us how to put God first, inviting peace and purpose into the lives she touched. With gentle manners and steadfast dedication, Jenifer encouraged us all toward a life of humility, compassion, and trust in divine guidance. Her influence was not loud, but it was profound, leaving an indelible mark of hope and encouragement.

As we remember her, I join her family and other friends to celebrate a life well-lived, a life that inspires us to walk with greater kindness, deeper faith, and heartfelt devotion. In honoring her legacy, may we now strive to carry forward her spirit of love and peace, reflecting the divine light she so effortlessly radiated.

Rest in power and peace, my dear friend, Jenifer.
