I just learned of Jennifer's passing from her husband at the Conyers Church today. Oh what a great loss. It was always a joy to see Jennifer. She had such a sweet disposition. It hurts to know she is no longer with us. Praying for healing for her family, especially her husband and son. May you feel the closeness of the Lord and know he will never leave you nor forsake you. He knows, He sees, and He cares. Love, Rosa Clay-Callier 🙏🙏
