“ Jen I just remembered when I asked my fb friends for a personal reference for my federal job and told everyone that a federal agent will be contacting you only a couple of people volunteered including you. You were always a caring and thoughtful person and I'm happy to have called you a friend.

“ In high school she was always sweet and stylish. When my cousin passed away a couple months ago from leukemia... she was so considerate and encouraging. I will continue to pray for her family and friends that God would continue to keep them and be their strength during this time of pain. She will definitely be missed...

I 2nd that, I didn't know Jen very well but she was always sweet. We won a scholarship in high school together and that was where I met her senior year-she will be missed.

“ I offer sincere condolences and comfort from the Scriptures. When a loved one falls asleep in death, our faith in God's provision to restore dead ones to life is a source of comfort. Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. Keep in mind..."God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses."
~Psalm 46:1

“ I am so sorry for your loss. "If a man die, shall he live again?" asked Job a long time ago. Perhaps you, too, wondered about this. Well the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up" Isaiah 26:19. And the Bible also says: the righteous ones will reside forever upon the earth. So yes, soon you may be reunited with your loved one again, possible right here on earth. Please find comfort from these facts during your time of need. Please visit www.jw.org
