“ Jeremiah... although we never spoke much when I came to the house to see your sister, you always seemed so sweet. I remember your shy self used to unlock the door then run to the kitchen or your room so I wouldn't see you. That was always so funny to me because you were this tall 6 foot boy tryna hide. I wish i made it appoint to talk to you more and get you out the house. You were Nancy's baby she always spoke highly of you and I hurt for her. You will be more than missed and never forgotten.
