“ Although I didn't know Jermaine Hall personally , as a concerned reader I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our times of distress. (Psalms 34:18) The Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when our loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Our Heavenly Father will grant us the mental peace we need (Phillipians 4:7) when we draw close to him in prayer. (James 4:8) May this scriptural comfort soothe your heart until these promises are fulfilled. For satisfying Bible answers on this subject and more visit jw.org

“ Jermaine bro!! What a pleasure it was knowing you. You made me feel welcomed since the first day I moved to Dekalb. I can remember so many funny things you have said in basketball practice, parties, and just all of us hanging out in general. You are truly going to be missed. Rest in peace brother. My prayers go out to your family.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr., Jermaine Hall. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. It is never easy when a loved one passes away, but that is especially true when they pass far too soon. May you take comfort in God's promise at Revelation 21:4 which assures us of a time free from sickness, pain, and death.

“ I am so saddened over the loss of such a fine young man as Jermaine. It was a true pleasure to have taught Jermaine in Latin class for 3 years while he was at Lakeside. I want to especially extend my deepest sympathy to his Mom and his brother. Jermaine touched so many lives with his bright smile and his zest for life each and every day while on this earth. “ Jermaine, MaineJer, Uncle Maine where some of the names that I called you or my son called you. We share soooooo many memories! I known you since 7th grade so I known you 10 plus years son lol I know I'm not from NJ! But we stayed making each other laugh and cracking jokes in class out of class where ever we went! That loud laugh and smile always brighten up my day! I will miss you and you will forever be in my heat! Until we meet again R.I.P Jermaine I love you! Ps.....Malachi ask was you still gone take him to the fire station? All I could do is smile and say one day.....

“ Jermaine I will never forget where I got my nickname from. You were the first to call me Alex-Is and now every time I hear it I will think of you... I will miss your laugh, your smile and the way you lit up a room when you entered. To my sweet friend, may you rest in peace, I love you and know that when we see each other again we will laugh like never before!!!

“ We know that God makes no mistakes and for him to call you home was no mistake. Even though it saddens us here on earth we have to remember that it's not our will but God's will that will be done. God saw that you completed your mission and welcomed you home. You will forever be loved and missed but never forgotten. Until we meet again my friend rest in paradise

“ You were one of the best friends I ever had, from the day we first met we instantly clicked and shared a lot of laughs and great times. Humble, funny, laid back, an ear when I needed it, I could go on for days about the great man and friend you were. I know I'll see you again one day so until then I'll be thinking of you. I'll miss you always, Forever my Jermainey

“ *Jermaine was a soldier for peace. Always smiling, mature, and well mannered. He was one of my son's best friends (Darius Richardson) and I'm so grateful that my son had Jermaine in his life to look up to as an example of a humble, well-balanced man full of love, respect, and peace for all of mankind. Forever rest in peace Jermaine. "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be; When we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory"! Peace & love, “ Mainejer!!! Your laugh is unforgettable and your smile was welcoming. I'll never forget you calling me "Lil Bri!" Wherever she was so was I but where we were so were you. "Jermaine's about to dunk!" Haha the school went crazy every time! I thank God I crossed a long path with you Jermaine! I'm glad I was able to encounter such a kind-hearted and loving spirit. You are greatly missed and will always be loved. Rest peacefully J.Hall! Until we cross paths again...

“ I could go all day explaining Jermaine's wonderful personality. His presence when he walked in any room would always send off a positive aura. His laugh, vibe, talents on and off the basketball court. Jermaine loved to clown around but would never offend anyone. Instead he would make people's day. He always love helping people out at any day any time. I remember Jermaine and I went to North Carolina with my church to play another church in a basketball game & all I can say is we were like Jordan and Pippen! We showed out!!! Brother I will not mourn because I can hear your voice now. Don't cry lil bro "I'm Straight" so I will remain strong and in the light. I'm praying for his wife Tanisha and the Strickland/Hall/Moore family, as well as his big bro Jacquez Hall, his mother mom Debbie and his Pop. I love you all like family and if there is anything you all may need my family and I are here for you. Rest Peacefully Brother JMH Respect

Sending Warmth & Love
