Jerome Jeffery Martin Age 58, passed away June 14, 2015 at Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia after a year long courageous battle with pancreatic cancer.

Jerome was born to Oliver and Odessa Martin on October 18, 1956 in Cleveland, Ohio. He was the youngest of five siblings. He graduated from East Tech High School. He enrolled in the United States Army at eighteen years of age shortly after graduation and traveled the world. Jerome met Wanda L. LeBlanc in 1981 in Waipahu, HI where they were neighbors at the time. They married a year later.

During his years of service, he received educational degrees, military awards, and employment certifications in the field of telecommunications. After 20 years, he retired as Staff Sergeant Jerome Martin. He began his "second" career at Bellsouth, which later merged with AT&T. He worked as a service tech for almost 20 years.

Although, Jerome loved to work hard, nothing mattered more to him than his family. He loved his wife, three daughters, and grandchildren. He also loved all of his extended family as well, including his brothers and sisters he met over the years. Even though he moved from Cleveland and never returned to live, cherished his hometown dearly by avidly supporting his the teams (Cleveland Indians, Ohio State Buckeyes, Cleveland Browns, and Cleveland Cavaliers).

He is preceded in death by his father, Oliver Martin. He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Odessa, and six siblings Oliver Jr, Arthur (Diane), Peter (Sheila), James (Faye), Joyce, and Jesus Hernandez Matos. Along with his devoted wife of 32 years, Wanda; daughters: Nicole Dweh, Nakita Bravo and Nichelle Martin; Son-in-laws: Corey Dweh and Ruben Bravo; grandchildren: Brandon Kincaid, Chloe Dweh and Julien Bravo; Mother and Father-in law: Geraldine and George LeBlanc; Sister-in-laws: Danie LeBlanc, Joetta Youngblood, and Yolanda Youngblood; Brother-in-law: Dr. Joseph Youngblood II; cherished pet Chico; and many nieces, nephew, other relatives and dear friends. Even though his family was large, he took an interest in each person, and was rewarded with a lifetime of love. He will be dearly missed. He made friends wherever he went, and left peacefully surrounded by his loved ones.

“ It's now almost two years later and I still look back at these memories. I remember when my dad would come home with his army boots on and he would sit in his chair. We would race to take his boots off. I would grab one and my sister the other and we would pull. We had so many fun ways of taking those boots off! ”

Michael and Sharon Stewart - June 23, 2015 at 10:29 PM

“ Jerome Martin. As a relative he was my first cousin. All throughout our lives we have been very close. I remember as a child, he took me to the store with him and I fell on glass and split my wrist. Boy, I teased cuz about that all the time as I grew older. I think that was the beginning of our close relationship. Cuz, we have had some great times and I will truly miss the sound of your laughter. As again cancer has claimed another relative of mine. Now all we can do is accept the facts and say, he will suffer no more and (like others before him that have suffered as well), Jerome has gone to a much better place.

For those of you that knew Jerome, I am sure there are many special moments that now enter your mind as you think of how glorious each day was that you had the pleasure of sharing his company. He was a very special person that always had a smile on his face accompanied by his cheerful laugh that would always make anyones day much better.

He will be missed, may God bless Jerome and all his surviving friends and relatives.

” Some day cuz, we will be together to share our memories once again. “

*Love you always,
Cousin Mickey*

“ WOW, what a time we have had! I think back to our Fort Ritchie MD days, how we by chance lived a few doors down from each other. I never thought we would become the friends we did and share some of the most beautiful days and nights of my life. Its amazing how we babysit each others children, looked after each other most prized possessions and never once did we argue or fight, oh we had some disagreements but we never lost sight of the love we shared. Our lives will forever be one in the same, I love you guys and missed being around you after we retired but in my heart and mine you were right around the corner. I will cherish those memories forever. Wanda and family we love you and are praying for God's comfort in these difficult days to come. Please call when and if you need me. I am sorry I can't be there but my brother Larry should be there to represent! Jerry sends his love and condolences. CJ and family

“ Our sincere condolences on your dear loss. The pain and grief we experience when we lose someone we love so much in death can be indescribable. That is why our Loving God, Jehovah, promises to destroy this enemy of ours soon forever (Isaiah 25:8)! Then we will truly be able to enjoy life with our loved ones the way God originally purposed (Isaiah 26:19; Ecclesiastes 3:11). May these wonderful promises bring much comfort to your dear hearts as time pass by.
