“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ My, prayers have all been answered I finally arrived The healing that had been delayed Has now been realized No one’s in a hurry There’s no schedule to keep We’re all enjoying Jesus Just sitting at His feet If you could see me now I’m walking streets of gold If you could see me now I’m standing tall and whole If you could see me now You’d know I’ve seen His face If you could see me now You’d know the pain’s erased You wouldn’t want me To ever leave this place You could only see me now My light and temporary trials Have worked out for my good To know it brought Him glory When I misunderstood Though we’ve had our sorrows They can never compare What Jesus has in store for us No language can share If you could see me now I’m walking streets of gold If you could see me now I’m standing tall and whole If you could see me now You’d know I’ve seen His face If you could see me now You’d know the pain’s erased (2) You wouldn’t want me To ever leave this perfect place You could only see me now You could see me now You could only see me now WESLEY Nationwide Family

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Jerome Smith. I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. In the days ahead, may you draw comfort from our Heavenly Father (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He is aware of the pain you are experiencing with the loss of your loved one. He gives us the hope of welcoming our departed ones back with his words at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. What a wonderful prospect for future blessings our Creator holds out for us. I hope his words and love and support of family and friends will help you through this difficult period.
