“ I am Jessie James III niece when I was growing up with him I always thought he was my brother. I use to cry when he told me he was not my brother. My uncle and I have had our time together and he will truly be missed not just by me but by the entire family. He was the one that kept us laughing and mess with everyone in the family Unc tell grandma and granddad hello for me. Keep smiling uncle you made it home you walked through those pearly gates with smile. I'm gonna miss uncle
