“ To the Wallace Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. We can have faith in these promises..because Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..Hebrews 6:18. Please know that Jessie Mae is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead.With Warm Christian Love,Your NeighborBonnie Perkins

“ Although I am unable to be there to hold your hands through this difficult time, know that my heart shares your sorrow. Gone but not forgotten is a smile that could light any room, and a voice that could warm any heart with a song. Find strength in knowing as Jessie Mae traveled to her heavenly home, her Aunt Daisy Mae was there awaiting her arrival with love. Sending you Prayers, Hugs, and Love,Ronetta A. “ May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision give you courage and peace as you look ahead to the time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. ~John 5:28,29. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~John 3:16, Isaiah 55:11, Revelation 21:3-5. His Word assures us...I will by no means leave you nor by any means forsake you. ~Hebrews 13:5
